The Guadalajara International Film Festival (FICG) is pleased to present the fifth edition of Premio Maguey, showing the best Queer/LGBTTTI (lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, transsexual, transvestite and intersexual) cinema in the world.

Up to 300 films were considered for this edition, in which 14 movies were selected to compete for the Best Film award selected by an international jury.

For the first time there are movies representing the whole spectrum of LGBTTTI, proving the variety of stories that filmmakers from all over the world are bringing to the big screen to deliver a wide range of characters and cultures to audiences.

This year's competition includes films from 14 countries: Mexico, Germany, Brazil, Chile, Cuba, Slovakia, France, India, England, Ireland, Israel, Italy, Poland and the Czech Republic.

The films that form the official competitive selection of the fifth edition of Premio Maguey are: Arianna (Italy), Baño de vida (Mexico), Barash (Israel), Boi Neon (Brazil), Chemsex (England), Departure (England/France), Desire Will Set You Free (Germany), Já, Olga Hepnarová (Czech Republic/Poland/Slovakia), Loev (India), Nunca vas a estar solo (Chile), Théo et Hugo dans le même bateau (France), Toro (Germany), Viva (Ireland/Cuba) y Viviana Rocco Yo Trans (Mexico).
